

Choosing Wisely - Putting the Theory into Practice

Te Papa, Wellington | 9am – 5.00 pm | 2 March 2018

| Time | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| 8.00 | Registration opens | |
| 9.00 | Opening address | |
| 9.15 | Implementing Choosing Wisely in services – how to get started and keep up the momentum | |
| Session 1 | Learning from others' experiences of setting up Choosing Wisely | |
| | • RNZCGP approach | Dr Richard Medicott |
| | • A clinical quality governance approach | Dr Sharon Kletchko |
| | • Involving allied health professionals | Harsh Vardhan |
| | • Using a steering group | Dr Nick Rogers |
| | • Work at ACC | Dr Rob Griffiths |
| | Developing a Choosing Wisely campaign – involving staff and consumers | Carol Limber |
| Lessons learnt in an Australian health service | Asmara Jammali-Blasi | |
| Morning tea 11.00 - 11.15 | | |
| 11.15 | Special interest groups. Group work identified at registration, topics include: | |
| Session 2 | • Referrers and referees in radiology | • Polypharmacy |
| | • Working in ED | • Advance care directives |
| | • Medico legal issues for Choosing Wisely | • Primary care |
| | • Competencies for medical education and next steps for student groups | • Working with allied health professionals |
| Topics discussed are subject to registration numbers. | | |
| Lunch 12.15 - 1.00 | | |
| 1.00 | Discussion on best ideas from each special interest group of session 2 | |
| 1.30 | Making sense of guidelines and statistics and measuring Choosing Wisely | |
| Session 3 | • Evidence behind the guidelines | Dr John O'Donnell |
| | • Cognitive bias regarding risks and benefits | Dr Brian Robinson |
| | • Measuring Choosing Wisely | Aidan Wilson and Adam Sangster |
| | • Using Health Pathways | Dr Michael Ardagh |
| 2.30 | Communicating shared decision-making | |
| Afternoon tea 3.00 - 3.15 | | |
| 3.15 | The future – what are the next steps for Choosing Wisely in New Zealand? | |
| Session 5 | | |
| 4.45 | Conclusions | Dr Derek Sherwood |

Final line-up of speakers may be subject to change